By Eva Paz-Ono

Rocky Point's new international airport that opened for last month's Border Governor's conference will be open with a full commercial schedule in October 2008. Alaskan Airlines, AeroMexico, and Mexicana airlines are already on board. Negotiations are in progress with Continental and American Airlines. Short flights (under 3 hours) will soon becoming available to 78 million people from California, Nevada, Utah, Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, and Texas. ABC News covered last month's Border Governors Conference, an annual meeting of the governors of the US/Mexico border states. See what the Assistant Director of the Arizona Department of Health, Governor Schwarzenegger and others had to say about evolution in Rocky Point in the YouTube video at <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=70GCoBBz0BQ>
